Subject index

A

Abdominal aorta aneurysm; see Aortic aneurysm

Acebutolol

Chronic use of acebutolol in the treatment of cardiac arrhythmias (O'Reilly). 1991;121:1185-93 (Curriculum cardi.)

Acenocoumarol

The importance of adequate anticoagulation to prevent early thrombosis after stenting of stenosed venous bypass grafts (Bucx et al). 1991;121:1389-96

Acquired immunodeficiency syndrome

Congenital acquired immunodeficiency syndrome presenting as cor pulmonale in a 10-year-old girl (Hays et al). 1991;121:929-31 (Brief comm.)

Adenosine

Adenosine for SVT (Letac) (Letter); (Viskin and Belhassen) (Reply). 1991;121:1845-7

Use of adenosine during hypotension in the Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome with supraventricular tachycardia (Jobe and Gallagher). 1991;121:1239-40 (Brief comm.)

Use of adenosine in postoperative junctional ectopic tachycardia with 1:1 retrograde atrial conduction (Rossi et al). 1991;121:1237-9 (Brief comm.)

The utility of adenosine to terminate supraventricular tachycardia in a premature hydropic infant (Fletcher et al). 1991;121:1818-9 (Brief comm.)

Adenosine cyclic monophosphate

Cardiovascular effects of milrinone (Colucci). 1991;121:1945-7 (Symposium)

Adenosine diphosphate

The effect of enteric-coated aspirin on the morning increase in platelet activity (McCall et al). 1991;121:1382-8

Adolescence

Prosthetic valves in children and adolescents (Solymar et al). 1991;121:557-68 (Curriculum cardi.)

Adrenergic alpha receptor blockers

Effect of α -adrenergic blockade on blood pressure, glucose, and lipid metabolism in hypertensive patients with non-insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus (Maruyama et al). 1991;121:1302-6 (Symposium)

Adrenergic beta receptor agonists

Hemodynamic effects of calcium channel and β -receptor antagonists: evaluation by Doppler echocardiography (Harrison et al). 1991;121:126-33

Adrenergic beta receptor blockers

The addition of doxazosin to the treatment regimen of patients with hypertension not adequately controlled by β -blockers (Englert and Barlage). 1991;121:311-6 (Symposium)

Ambulatory blood pressure monitoring in the evaluation of drug efficacy (O'Brien et al). 1991;121:999-1006 (Symposium)

Angina, ischemia, and effort tolerance with vasodilating β -blockers (Dargie et al). 1991;121:1017-20 (Symposium)

Attenuation of myocardial ischemia during coronary occlusion by ultrashort-acting beta adrenergic blockade (Labovitz et al). 1991;121:1347-52

Blood magnesium and potassium alterations with maximal treadmill exercise testing: effects of β -adrenergic blockade (Fletcher et al). 1991;121:105-110

Cardiovascular risk factors and the effects of intervention (Sleight). 1991;121:990-5 (Symposium)

Chronic use of acebutolol in the treatment of cardiac arrhythmias (O'Reilly). 1991;121:1185-93 (Curriculum cardi.)

Class III antiarrhythmic action of d-sotalol during hypothermia (Björnstad et al). 1991;121:1429-36

Clinical pharmacology of vasodilatory β -blocking drugs (Shanks). 1991;121:1006-11 (Symposium)

Digitalis and β -blocking agents: effects on depression following myocardial infarction (Schleifer et al). 1991;121:1397-1402

A double-blind comparative study of doxazosin and prazosin when administered with β -blockers or diuretics (de Planque). 1991;121:304-11 (Symposium)

Adrenergic beta receptor blockers—Cont'd

The effects of cardioselective vasodilating β -blockers on lipids (Hunninghake). 1991;121:1029-32 (Symposium)

Efficacy of celiprolol in the elderly hypertensive patient (Taylor). 1991;121:1020-9 (Symposium)

Hypertension with concomitant conditions: the changing role of β -adrenoceptor blockade (Weber). 1991;121:716-23 (Symposium)

Preclinical pharmacology of celiprolol: a cardioselective β -adrenergic antagonist and mild vasodilator (Perrone and Barrett). 1991;121:677-83 (Symposium)

Reversal of cardiac and vascular hypertrophy by antihypertensive therapy (Hansson). 1991;121:995-8 (Symposium)

Risk factor modulation with new generation vasodilating β -blockers: official satellite to the 13th Scientific Meeting of the International Society of Hypertension—introduction (Mancia and de Champlain). 1991;121:989-90 (Symposium)

States of insulin resistance: the interaction between hypertension, glucose intolerance, and coronary heart disease—introduction (Ross and Kannel). 1991;121:1267 (Symposium)

Submaximal, but not maximal, exercise testing detects differences in the effects of β -blockers during treadmill exercise: a study of celiprolol and atenolol. II (McLenachan et al). 1991;121:691-6 (Symposium)

Ultra short-acting intravenous β -adrenergic blockade as add-on therapy in acute unstable angina (Barth et al). 1991;121:782-8

Vasodilatory β -blockers: systemic and regional hemodynamic effects (Frolich). 1991;121:1012-7 (Symposium)

Adrenergic fibers

Measuring acute changes in adrenergic nerve activity of the heart in the living animal (Sisson et al). 1991;121:1119-23

Adrenergic nerves; see Adrenergic fibers

Adrenoceptors; see Receptors, adrenergic

Aged

Age-dependent increase in deleted mitochondrial DNA in the human heart: possible contributory factor to presbycardia (Hattori et al). 1991;121:1735-42

Efficacy of celiprolol in the elderly hypertensive patient (Taylor). 1991;121:1020-9 (Symposium)

Aging

Effects of aging on left ventricular structure and function (Pearson et al). 1991;121:871-5

AICD; see Electric countershock

Alcohol drinking

Bashing booze: the danger of losing the benefits of moderate alcohol consumption (Kaplan). 1991;121:1854-6 (Editorial)

Algorithms

Determination of pulse wave velocities with computerized algorithms (Chiu et al). 1991;121:1460-70

Allopurinol

A randomized controlled trial of allopurinol in coronary bypass surgery (Johnson et al). 1991;121:20-4

Amiodarone

Comparison of the results of electrophysiologic testing after short-term and long-term treatment with amiodarone in patients with ventricular tachycardia (Rosenheck et al). 1991;121:1693-8

Electrocardiographic and antiarrhythmic effects of intravenous amiodarone: results of a prospective, placebo-controlled study (Hohnloser et al). 1991;121:89-95

Side effects from amiodarone (Wilson and Podrid). 1991;121:158-71 (Curriculum cardi.)

Amyl nitrite

Dynamic changes in left ventricular outflow tract flow velocities after amyl nitrite inhalation in hypertrophic cardiomyopathy (Hadjimiltiades et al). 1991;121:1143-8

Aneurysm
